Projects may include maintaining a presence for the Coliseum on social networking websites and event calendars; assisting with media relations and press operations; participating in strategic planning and special events; helping promote the Coliseum events by organizing promotional efforts both internally and on a grassroots level; and assist with daily administrative duties. Interns should be adaptable and quick learners who are prepared to work in a fast-paced environment. A desire to work in the entertainment/sports industry is a must. Please note this will be a semester long internship.

Responsibilities:

- Work with the Advertising Manager & Advertising Specialist on all promotions and projects for upcoming events
- Utilize Photoshop, InDesign, & Illustrator to make promotional graphics for all events at the Coliseum. This will include print ads, posters, flyers, social media, email blasts etc.
- Work with the Public Relations Manager at events as a media liaison and act as the social media coordinator for the night
- Assist in the distribution or delivery of marketing materials
- Provide support, content creation and monitor all Coliseum social media accounts

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate student majoring in Business/Marketing, Communications/PR preferred but not required
- Experience in graphic design including Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign is a plus but not required.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to take direction and multi-task in a fast pace work environment
- Availability to work at least 8 to 10 hours per week at the Coliseum with occasional availability on weekends and special events. Some special Coliseum events are mandatory depending on semester.
- Candidates must be based in the Triad (during the semester) and have reliable transportation to work out of the Coliseum offices. Parking will be provided.

Hours: Availability to work at least 8-10 hours per week at the Coliseum with some availability on nights and weekends. Some special Coliseum events are mandatory depending on semester. Working one event per month will be required.

Compensation: This is an Unpaid/Volunteer internship
